

Adv. Anat Bernstein-Reich

- President Israel-Asia Chamber of Commerce CEO, BDO Israel-India Investment Banking
- Chairperson of Israel-India & Israel-Sri Lanka Chambers of Commerce
- Executive committee member- The Israeli Bi-National Chambers of Commerce
- Chairperson, The Agribator, the center for Israeli Agtech in India
- Co-Founder of the IIWBF- The India-Israel Women Business Forum
- G100 Advisory Board

Ms. Bernstein-Reich enjoys both worlds, on one hand, an investment banker and senior advisor to large number of companies, and on other hand a serial entrepreneur from Telecom to Agriculture to Real Estate and even a Bollywood show.

Manages today the leading consulting firm on the Israel-India axis. The Chairwoman and co-founder of Agribator Technologies, the center for Israeli Agritech in India. Is among the promoters of the Vedapuram township in Mysore, an Israeli-Indian real estate initiative. Previously, managed the Gyan Milan- The Israel-India Technology Forum, bringing leading CEO-CIOs from India to learn of first hand of the Israeli innovation. Managed the first Israel-India Innovation Bridge program in 2018 that was initiated by PM Netanyahu and PM Modi. The program took Israeli innovations in Digital Health, Water and Agriculture and assisted them to enter the Indian market. A columnist and blogger about India in the Israeli papers.

Was awarded an Iconic Women Award by the WEF- Women Economic Forum 2016. Was awarded by S.P. Mandali's WeSchool, Friend of India 2020 in for her economic contribution to India. In 2021 was invited to be the global chair for Finance and Funding and later an advisory board member in the G100 club- a group of 100 Global Women Leaders. In April 2022 received an honorary doctorate from the Jharkhand Rai University in India.

Served as the executive producer of The Bharati Shows mega-shows with 70 artists from India on stage, performed 2005-2018 and viewed by over 4 million people worldwide.

Served as the World Bank's consultant for projects in the Dominican Republic, Africa, Sri Lanka and Turkey. Co-founded several start-up companies in Boston, Santa Clara and Israel.

Holds LL.B. degree from the Faculty of Law at the Tel Aviv University and is a member of the Israeli Bar. Holds MBA in Finance and International Business from the University of San Francisco.