

Marie-Christine Oghly was born in Lorraine in 1957, she is married since 1983

Awarded a diploma in Hydrology and an MBA at the Business School of Nancy, she began her career in 1980 as a trainee in Public Relations in ELF Group.

In 1986 She entered Amazon Technology as Marketing Manager Europe and pursued her ascent to Managing Director .

In 1992, she created Fluid Dynamics International a subsidiary of an American Group based in Chicago acting in Computational Fluid Dynamics

In 1997, she created Flowmaster France a subsidiary of a British Company still in Fluid Mechanics

In 2006 she became President of Esteco France.

In 2008, she created EnginSoft France specialized in Numerical Simulation Engineering

Besides her professional commitment, she continues her involvement in the civic and associative activities.

She was elected Councilor at Gennevilliers City Hall 2001-2008

In 2004 she was elected National President of Femmes Chefs d'Entreprises France

She is Board member of Nafems «International Association for Engineering Analysis ».

and President of Micado French Association involved in Numerical Engineering through a Think Tank made of Experts Since 2007,

She was elected President of MEDEF Ile-de-France and Executive Board Member of MEDEF in 2008 position she held until 2014

She became President of Solendi, the major player in social housing and Vice President of Immobilière 3F in 2010 up to 2017

From 2013 to 2017 she was FCEM General Secretary together with Vice President

In 2010 she was elected Economic, Social and Environmental Regional Councilor until 2017

From 2014 to 2018 she was Vice-President of International Pole and Commission of MEDEF

In June 2016 she became President of Comité Régional Action Logement for Ile de France (Social Housing)

She is French Foreign Trade Advisor (CCEF) since 2011

In 2017 she reached one of the goal she set for herself being elected World President of Femmes Chefs d'Entreprises Association (FCEM)

In July 2018, she is again elected Executive board Member of MEDEF assuming also the position of President of Education, Training and Competences Commission

She is Board Member of APAVE

Since February 2020 she is Vice President of WBAF (World Business Angels Forum) Global Women Leaders Committee , WBAF Faculty member , she became also Senator in 2022

In October 2020 she was elected President of Astech Paris Region the Aerospace, Space and Defense competitiveness Cluster of Ile de France

Since February 2022, she is elected Vice Chair of Paris Ile de France Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Chair of International Committee and Special Advisor to the President on International Affairs.

She is elected First Vice Chair of ICC -World Chambers Federation in June 2022

She is Knight of Legion d' Honneur and Officer of National Merit Order. Doctor Honoris Causa.