

She was born in Turin in 1962, there completed her studies, lives and works as a lawyer.

After graduating in law from the University of Turin, she passed the qualifying exam to practice law and joined the Turin Bar Association in 1998.

Since then she has been the owner of a law firm.

In 2010 she registered in the Register of Lawyers authorized to practice before the Higher Jurisdictions.

From 2010 to 2013 she was a member of the Board of Directors of the Turin Fulvio Croce Lawyers Foundation.

In 2015 she obtained the necessary qualifications for registration in the Piedmont regional database "More women for the Board of Directors and top positions".

In 2016 she was appointed Alternate Equality Councilor of the Metropolitan City of Turin with Ministerial Decree 12.7.2016 of the Minister of Labor and Social Policies.

In 2017 she registered in the List of Lawyers expert in anti-discrimination law - approved by the Council of the Turin Bar Association.

In 2021 she was appointed Effective Equality Councilor of the Metropolitan City of Turin with Ministerial Decree 29.1.2021 of the Minister of Labor and Social Policies.

Since 2021 she has been a member of the Single Guarantee Committee of the Metropolitan City of Turin, as well as a member of the Coordination Against Violence against Women - City of Turin and of the Observatory on Women's Health - City of Turin.

In 2022 she collaborated with the Turin Metropolitan City, with API Turin and with the Turin Industrial Union on the drafting and creation of the Vademecum "Never again violence, never again harassment" and in 2018 she worked with the Turin Metropolitan City, with the Piedmont Region, with the Piedmont Agency on the drafting and implementation of the Vademecum "Against discrimination".