

Currently in SACE as Manager in the Education, Business Promotion & Supply Chain team providing training solutions and business matching initiatives to the benefit of the Italian SMEs. Previously, she initiated the program of SACE's business matching initiatives and implemented the relevant digital platform.

She joined SACE in 2008 in the Network Management & Outreach team coordinating the commercial plan and business development initiatives of the 10 International offices in the main emerging economies. She carried out the launch of new products and the opening of new regional offices in China and UAE.